Chapter 1 by Katie Grace

It was 7 am and the alarm was begging me to get up. I hit the button and let out a deep sigh, I turned around and slowly opened my eyes. Yup he was still here, I knew he would stay I knew it. I loved Erik so much and last night was the night, we finally made love to each other. I can still remember his soft voice running wild through my mind, his soft skin, I could still feel it on my finger tips. His smell was so sweet that I couldn't get it out of my head. I was finally, truly in love with someone, and I told myself that I was never going to let him get away.
